Code of Conduct for Members of the Board of Regents

SECTION I. SCOPE.

This policy governs the conduct and activities of members of the Board of Regents (Board) of the University of Minnesota (University). In addition to this policy, the Board further defines its role and authority, the conduct and activities of Regents, and guiding principles for the University through the Bylaws of the Board of Regents (Bylaws) and other Board policies and actions.

SECTION II. GUIDING PRINCIPLES.

The Board, created under Minnesota Territorial Laws of 1851 by the passage of the University Charter and perpetuated by the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, is the governing body of the University. Exercising its constitutional autonomy, the Board defines a vision and mission for the University and ensures that the University fulfills its land grant legacy.

Regents shall adhere to the highest ethical standards. Regents bring to their task varied backgrounds and expertise, but are expected to put aside personal interests and keep the welfare of the entire University, not just a particular constituency, at all times paramount.

SECTION III.

transaction or other action taken by the University. Regents must be aware of the appearance of a conflict of interest and the potential for such conflicts. Accordingly, the conflict of interest provisions of this policy shall be interpreted and applied to best serve the interests of the University and its mission. For purposes of this policy, "conflict of interest" or "conflict" shall mean an actual or potential conflict of interest.
