employees as necessary and prudent, including authority to execute contracts and other legal documents. The president may condition, limit, or revoke any presidential authority so delegated.

All delegations and revocations under this section shall be in writing, name the position to whom such authority is delegated, describe the scope and limitations of such authority, and prescribe the extent to which such authority may be further sub-delegated.

All delegations and revocations under this section shall be reviewed as to form, legality, and consistency by the general counsel.

Annually, the president shall report to the Board significant changes to the delegations.

The chair and vice chair of the Board shall have such authority as is authorized by Board Bylaws and policies and is customarily exercised by such officers of a corporation. The chair shall have authority to execute any and all instruments and documents on behalf of the Board.

The secretary, treasurer, general counsel, and chief auditor shall have authority to perform such duties for the Board as provided by Board Bylaws, policies, and directives.

The secretary shall have authority to execute such instruments and documents that would customarily devolve upon a corporate officer and are usual to that office.

The secretary and the general counsel shall have authority to accept legal service on behalf of the University.

The chief auditor reports to the Board and may perform audits at the request of the president. By invitation, the chief auditor may participate on the president's cabinet.

The chief auditor and the general counsel shall notify the Board of any matter that significantly involves the authority and role of the Board, including its fiduciary, oversight, and public accountability responsibilities, or if it raises unusual questions of public interest or public policy, has significant impact on the University's mission, or poses a significant risk to the University.

Any request or demand by a Board member for action must be consistent with the written policies, rules, and regulations of the Board and the University.

No executive officer or employee of the University shall have any authority to take any action or make any representation on behalf of the University beyond the scope of, or materially inconsistent with, the authority delegated to such executive officer or employee as provided in this policy.

The secretary and the general counsel each shall have the duty to inform the Board of any existing or proposed Board policy or directive that is inconsistent with or alters the delegations of authority as provided in this policy.
